

“Who Is God?”

Deuteronomy 6:4-5

Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology:

1. Who Is God?
2. What's God up to?
3. Who are we?
4. What's gone wrong?
5. What's God done about our problem?
6. How is God's Spirit moving today?
7. How do we join the Spirit's movement?

Deuteronomy 6:4-5 “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.”

“The one God is in reality not a numerical...one, but a unity which is differentiated in himself.” Tertullian

The Bible doesn't use the word Trinity, but since the 3rd century it has become the word to describe the _____ relationship of the Three-fold Oneness between the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

From the moment of Jesus baptism – he couldn't stop speaking about this “One God” _____ that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit have with each other.

Our salvation is grounded in this three-fold _____ of the God who is one.

The Bottom Line:

The more we worship Jesus, the more we find ourselves caught up in the relationship at the center of the universe, surrounded by Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

My love toward others will be more authentically genuine when it is grounded in the Trinity.
