

Who Is God? – Part 2

1 John 4:7-12

Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology:

1. Who Is God?
2. What's God up to?
3. Who are we?
4. What's gone wrong?
5. What's God done about our problem?
6. How is God's Spirit moving today?
7. How do we join the Spirit's movement?

At the center of the universe is a _____. At the center of the universe is a _____.

The three Persons of the Trinity are not distinctions _____ God's being; they are distinctions _____ God's being. They "subsist" together.

When we say "yes" to God and come by faith to him through Jesus Christ, the Son, we _____ a new identity.

The God who is love draws us, sinful human beings, into the _____ of Lover, Beloved and Love itself. Our purpose for living is to be loved by God and love him in return.

God draws near to us – to draw us near to himself, in order to draw us into the circle of his knowing and loving himself.

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works."
Hebrews 10:19-24
