

“How Do You Respond to Bad News?”

Nehemiah 1:1-11

Series: “Hearing from God”

“As soon as I heard these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days, and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.” Neh. 1:4

“Nehemiah” means – “The Lord Comforts”

Historical Background

701 B.C. Assyria attacks Judah – 1st Exile c.f. Isaiah 36:1-37:20

586 B.C. Babylon attacks Judah – 2nd Exile c.f. Jeremiah 52:12-16

458 B.C. King Cyrus sends the Ezra delegation back to rebuild the Temple

446 B.C. Nehemiah inquires about the people and the city of Jerusalem

Do I care about the _____ that God has put around me? (v.2)

How do I _____ when people’s lives are out of sync with mine? (v.4)

What would happen in those relationships if I began to bring them regularly before _____? (vv.5-6)

How does God want me to _____ with my neighbor? (v.11)

Question for Prayer and Fasting this Week:

“What are the greatest needs of those who live around me?”

Five Goals for this Journey as a Church

- Focus on God
- Uncommon Unity Among Us
- Personal Spiritual Renewal
- Corporate Revival
- Significant Accomplishment as a Team

“How Do You Respond to Bad News?”

Nehemiah 1:1-11

Series: “Hearing from God”

“As soon as I heard these words I sat down and wept and mourned for days, and I continued fasting and praying before the God of heaven.” Neh. 1:4

“Nehemiah” means – “The Lord Comforts”

Historical Background

701 B.C. Assyria attacks Judah – 1st Exile c.f. Isaiah 36:1-37:20

586 B.C. Babylon attacks Judah – 2nd Exile c.f. Jeremiah 52:12-16

458 B.C. King Cyrus sends the Ezra delegation back to rebuild the Temple

446 B.C. Nehemiah inquires about the people and the city of Jerusalem

Do I care about the _____ that God has put around me? (v.2)

How do I _____ when people’s lives are out of sync with mine? (v.4)

What would happen in those relationships if I began to bring them regularly before _____? (vv.5-6)

How does God want me to _____ with my neighbor? (v.11)

Question for Prayer and Fasting this Week:

“What are the greatest needs of those who live around me?”

Five Goals for this Journey as a Church

- Focus on God
- Uncommon Unity Among Us
- Personal Spiritual Renewal
- Corporate Revival
- Significant Accomplishment as a Team