

Who Is God? – Part 3

Acts 17:16-31

Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

“In him we live and move and have our being...” Acts 17:28

1. Who Is God?

He is the God who eternally subsists in three distinct persons, yet is one God. Deuteronomy 6:4

Scottish Theologian: Thomas Torrance

“God draws near to us in such a way as to draw us near to himself within the circle of his knowing of himself.”

The Trinity of God invites us to enter the _____ of his relationship within the Three Persons. C.f. vv.27-28

Questions:

What would it look like if I began to live my life knowingly as God’s offspring? What if I stopped treating God as a foreign object and started to live within the relationship of his existence within himself, which he invites me into?

We all need the _____ of God to avoid a spiritually dead life and to avoid eternal judgment.

“God commands all people everywhere to repent” (v.30).

God often-times uses other people to _____ me to the center of his relationship.

“Be still and know that I am God. I will be exalted in the earth. The LORD of hosts is with us.” Psalm 46:10-11

What do you think God might do in you, if you turned your life toward him and you begin to lift your voice to acknowledge his presence and his desire for you?
