

What's God Up To? (Part 1)

Isaiah 48:1-13

Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

“Practical Eschatology” – How we are to live leading up to the end?

Our primary focus is to live in _____ not speculation of what God has promised to do in the future.

The Premise: What is God up to?

It is not about us – IT IS ALL ABOUT HIM!

Isaiah 48:1-13:

- You take oaths and call on God, but you don't keep your promises. You claim to be God's children, but you don't depend on him. (vv. 1-2)

The problem: You know God is calling you, but something inside of you is _____ his voice. (v.4-9)

What is God up to? (vv. 9-12)

“For my own sake, for my own sake, I do it, for how should my name be profaned? My glory I will not give to another.”

Isaiah 48:11; C.f. Rev. 21:6; Rom. 11:36; Prov. 16:4; Col. 1:16

Practical Living in Expectation

- Are you in the middle of a hard life event right now where it would be good for you to fully acknowledge that God is in it?
- If you are suffering in that event, what might God be drawing your attention too? Our job is to follow the Holy Spirit's movement and to walk through the doors that he opens up.
- Is there someone you can confide in that will help raise your awareness of God's activity?
