

What's God Up To? (Part 2)

Zephaniah 3:17

Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

Early Worldviews

Ptolemy (100-175 AD)

Geocentric view: the earth was the center of the universe and everything revolved around it.

Anthropocentricity = man centeredness. If man was living on a centered earth, then everything must revolve around man as well.

Copernicus (1473-1543 AD) (The Copernican Revolution)

The Revolutions of the Celestial Spheres – the earth along with the moon and the stars were all in motion revolving around the Sun, which challenged the Anthropocentric view.

Martin Luther – the famous theologian took Copernicus' discovery and applied it to man's existence. He developed the proper Theo-centric view = All of life revolves around God.

PREMISE: It is not about us – it is all about Him!

Real life, true life, joy-filled life, a life of inner contentment and peace can only be truly realized if you are living with a _____.

The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing.

Zephaniah 3:17

When the center of my life is me, I exist without any divine power. But when the center of my life is God by the Son through the Spirit, the very life that flows around the circle of the _____ flows into me.

What's God up to? He is showing himself to be God who _____ human brokenness by giving himself sacrificially for us.

What's God Up To? (Part 2)

Zephaniah 3:17

Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

Early Worldviews

Ptolemy (100-175 AD)

Geocentric view: the earth was the center of the universe and everything revolved around it.

Anthropocentricity = man centeredness. If man was living on a centered earth, then everything must revolve around man as well.

Copernicus (1473-1543 AD) (The Copernican Revolution)

The Revolutions of the Celestial Spheres – the earth along with the moon and the stars were all in motion revolving around the Sun, which challenged the Anthropocentric view.

Martin Luther – the famous theologian took Copernicus' discovery and applied it to man's existence. He developed the proper Theo-centric view = All of life revolves around God.

PREMISE: It is not about us – it is all about Him!

Real life, true life, joy-filled life, a life of inner contentment and peace can only be truly realized if you are living with a _____.

The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing.

Zephaniah 3:17

When the center of my life is me, I exist without any divine power. But when the center of my life is God by the Son through the Spirit, the very life that flows around the circle of the _____ flows into me.

What's God up to? He is showing himself to be God who _____ human brokenness by giving himself sacrificially for us.