

"Feeling Overwhelmed, So Was Jesus"

Matthew 26:36-44

Series: Daring to Draw Near

In the midst of our most difficult trials, we are never, never without the divine _____ of Heaven.

"My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will" (v.39). If there is anything we learn about Jesus from this prayer, it is that Jesus in his humanity struggled with the same issue we do, _____.

We are given a view of Jesus struggle, that the disciples _____ through. We can see Him being _____ by the same feelings we have concerning our own weaknesses.

"He had to be made like his brothers in every way, in order that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in service to God, and that he might make atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself suffered when he was tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted." Hebrews 2:17-18

It is pretty clear that even though Jesus submits to the Father's will the storm raging inside of Him didn't necessarily _____ down.

When your back is against the wall and you don't know how things can possibly turn out, _____ on this night. Entrust yourself fully to God's care. C.f. Psalm 121

Understand this: The storm you are going through is not going to last forever. But it may not be over immediately even when you have _____ to the Father's will.

God is faithful and He will be faithful to you. But do what Jesus did _____ near.

"Let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful." Hebrews 10:22-23
