

Who Are We?

Genesis 1:26-27; 1 Peter 3:1-6

Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

“The glory of God is a human being fully alive.”

What does it mean to be a man or a woman who is fully alive?

How important is it for us to _____ the way we relate as men and women, in a way that reveals the relational style of the Trinity?

“Female” – means to be punctured or bored through. Opened to receive something. C.f. 2 Kings 12:9; Exodus 21:6

When Jesus invites you, as woman, to come to Him – He is inviting you to be _____ to advance the purposes in His kingdom for his glory. It means to fall-in-line with the larger story of God.

What does it mean to have a “gentle and quiet spirit?” 1 Peter 3:4

It is an invitation to the husband to explore his wife’s _____ . It is a relational style that invites the husband in.

The inner beauty of a woman – evokes _____ .
Psalm 27:4; Psalm 96:6

A woman’s calling is to get a taste of the beauty of God that will _____ others into the sanctuary. It is not something you put on, but something you release.

The Gospel makes a “gentle and quiet spirit” imperishable.

Small Group Soul-Care

Who Are We?

What does it mean to be a man or a woman who is fully alive?

Why is it important to “recapture” the way we relate as men and women in a way that reveals the relational style of the Trinity?

What would that look like in relationships between people and specifically within a marriage?

Pastor Rich stated: “that when Jesus invites us to come unto Him – Jesus is inviting us to be advance the purposes of God. Digest in your group – What are the purposes of God?

Time for men to be quiet and listen in on the conversation

Ladies: What does it mean to you to be a “feminine woman” who is “opened” to the purposes of God? Read 1 Peter 3:1-6

When you hear the statement: “a gentle and quiet spirit is a relational style that invites your husband to explore your inner beauty” – What happens inside of you?

Men: When you hear that your wife’s inner beauty is a powerful tool of God to reach into your soul – How do you react to that?