Series: The Seven Questions of Spiritual Theology

“The glory of God is a human being fully alive.”

What would it look like to live as a man or a woman and be fully alive in our capacity to relate to one another?

- Understanding my core _____

Is there hope to be close to living out the biblical masculinity and biblical femininity in which we were created?

- We need to _____ deeper into the moment and touch each other's _____.

What does it mean to be “Male?” – ZAKAR = To move.

- As a husband – I have a calling to reveal God to my wife by moving toward her, just as God has moved toward me.

Abraham & Sarah – biblical masculinity and femininity.

- Genesis 12:1-3
- Genesis 15:1-6
- Genesis 17:1-4; 15-17
- Genesis 18:9-14
- Genesis 21:1-7
- Romans 4:18-21

Abraham and Sarah became fully alive in the glory of God as they lived moving towards each other as image bearers of God. So can we!

Who Are We?

1 Peter 2:13-25 describes three things:
human relationships, a calling and a healing.

- What is the foundational basis for all the relationships?
- What are we called to?
- What is it that we are healed from?
- How should this impact our relationships?
- What are the risks in obeying what God is commanding in this passage?

Being fully alive in the glory of God - has something to do with having your soul touched by another human being.

- A husband intentionally moving towards his wife.
- A wife being fully opened in inward beauty to receive her husband.

A husband touching his wife's soul and a wife touching her husband's soul. As a group, talk about the impact this would have on the marriage relationship?

- What might be gained?
- What might be risked?
- What is the value in taking the risk?
