

“Loving Others Is Knowing God”

1 Corinthians 8:1-3

Series: Living Life by Loving

“A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” John 13:34-35

Two amazing truths:

1. Unless I love my brother or sister in Christ – I cannot love God
2. When I love my brother or sister in Christ – I cannot help but love God.

Two basic core commandments of the New Covenant:

- Believe in Jesus Christ – “This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.” John 6:29; c.f. John 3:16
- Love one another – “A new commandment I give to you that you love one another, just as I have loved you...” John 13:34

God the Father has _____ us to believe in His Son and Jesus, as God’s Son, has commanded us to _____ one another. These are the core commandments of the Christian Faith.

How is God’s heart deeply touched? When we, the people of God, love the other people of God – then we are loving _____.

We must not allow _____ to subtly replace true love.

“And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment...” Philippians 1:9

When we are loving the people God puts right in front of us, we are loving God and touching His heart. “we are known by God.” (v.3)
